¹ The Madrid Union is composed of the States party to the Madrid Agreement and the Contracting Parties to the Madrid Protocol.

² All the States party to the Madrid Agreement have declared, under Article 3*bis* of the Nice or Stockholm Act, that the protection arising from international registration shall not extend to them unless the proprietor of the mark so requests.

³ The territories of Belgium, Luxembourg and the Kingdom of the Netherlands in Europe are to be deemed a single country, for the application of the Madrid Agreement as from January 1, 1971, and for the application of the Protocol as from April 1, 1998.

⁴ Not applicable to either Hong Kong, China or Macao, China.

⁵ In accordance with Article 5(2)(b) and (c) of the Protocol, this Contracting Party has declared that the time limit to notify a refusal of protection shall be 18 months and that, where a refusal of protection results from an opposition to the granting of protection, such refusal may be notified after the expiry of the 18-month time limit.

⁷ Applicable to Greenland as of January 11, 2011 and the Faroe Islands as of April 13, 2016.

⁸ In accordance with Article 14(5) of the Protocol, this Contracting Party has declared that the protection resulting from any international registration effected under this Protocol before the date of entry into force of this Protocol with respect to it cannot be extended to it.

⁹ Including all Overseas Departments and Territories.

¹⁰ In accordance with Article 5(2)(b) of the Protocol, this Contracting Party has declared that the time limit to notify a refusal of protection shall be 18 months.

¹³ Date of accession by the Soviet Union, continued by the Russian Federation as from December 25, 1991.

¹⁴ Serbia is the continuing State from Serbia and Montenegro as from June 3, 2006.

¹⁵ Ratification in respect of the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man.

¹⁶ The United Kingdom extended the application of the Madrid Protocol to the territories of Gibraltar and the Bailiwick of Guernsey with effect from January 1, 2021. In accordance with Article 8(7)(a) of the Protocol, this Contracting Party has declared that the Bailiwick of Guernsey, in connection with each request for territorial extension to it of the protection of an international registration and the renewal of any such international registration, wishes to receive an individual fee, instead of a share in the revenue produced by the supplementary and complementary fees.
